William Wiseman Falls Under a Wagon And Is Instantly Killed.

Tuesday's Stautton Spectator.

News has just reacted here of a distressing accident in Rockbridge county near the Augusta line. William Wisemen, an aged gentleman and a tenant upon the farm of Rev. Mr. Waller, started to Raphine with a load of wheat. On reaching a steep hill Mr. Wiseman attempted to lock the wheels of the wagon and in doing so he slipped and fell under the wagon, the wheels passing over his body, killing him instant-

Mr. Beard was quite badly, though not seriously hurt, while Mr. Entsminger was more fortunate and escaped uninjured.

MISTAKEN FOR COON.

Paul Lindsay went coon hunting on Saturday night near Timber Ridge. In a short time the dogs treed a coon. Uncle Paul climbed the tree after the coon. Unfortunately he went out on a dead limb, which broke, landing him on the ground among the dogs. The dogs mistook him for a great big coon and proceeded to demolish him. Uncle Paul, although severely bitten, we are glad to learn, is not seriously in-
